

Stage 5: Two Timing Son of a Gun

The new guy in Roy O'Bannon's gang, Wallace, was severely disturbed when he found out he had been replaced by the Shanghai Kid. So he confronts Roy and Chong Wang to settle the score.

2 pistols loaded with 5 rounds each, hammers on empty chambers, holstered.
Rifle loaded with 9 rounds, hammer on an empty chamber, staged on the rest.
Shotgun held at port arms (butt at or below the gun belt), 4 to 7 rounds to be loaded from your person.

Shooter starts standing next to the haybale, with shotgun at port arms, both hands on the shotgun. When ready call out "That two timing son of a gun has double crossed me with that Chinaman from the train!" At the buzzer, knock down the two poppers. Shooter may take a maximum of one extra shot at each. With the action open and empty, move forward to the rest and shoot the interactive target, then the pop up clay. If the first shot doesn't pop up the clay, the shooter may load and fire an extra. If the clay still doesn't pop up, one miss will be scored for the clay. Stage the open and empty shotgun on the rest and retrieve your rifle. Shoot the rifle targets in a Nevada sweep starting on either side. Place the open and empty rifle on the rest and move to the right to the 2nd haybale – do NOT draw until coming to a complete stop. With your pistols, alternate between the 2 pistol targets until empty, starting on the left.
