

Stage #5 – A Ride in the Country

Your prisoners have broken out of jail just one hour before their scheduled hanging. You hastily get a posse together to run them down before they leave your jurisdiction. When one of the prisoners shoots your hat off you decide to call it quits but not before a parting shot.

2 pistols loaded with five rounds each, hammers on the empty chambers, holstered.
Rifle loaded with 10 rounds, hammer on the empty chamber, staged in the rest.
Shotgun open and empty staged in the rest with four rounds to be loaded from your person.

Standing by the rest with the hobbyhorse between your legs and both hands holding it. When ready call out, in your best British accent, “Today, my jurisdiction ends here.” At the buzzer, pick up your rifle and Nevada sweep the rifle targets starting from the right until empty. Pick up your shotgun and sweep the shotgun targets from right to left. Run up to the next hay bale and (come to a complete stop) take your first pistol and put three in the far right target and three in the far left, and 4 in the center.
