

Birds for Breakfast

When waking up in the morning you notice that the field you slept in is full of pheasant. Since you are low on food, you shoot a pair for breakfast. After you shoot them, some hostile Indians decide that they want them. Defend your breakfast!

2 pistols loaded with 5 rounds each, holstered, hammers resting on empty chambers.
Rifle loaded with 9 rounds, hammer resting on the empty chamber, staged on the haybale.
Shotgun staged open and empty on the haybale, at least 2 rounds to be loaded from your person.

Shooter starts standing with hands touching the brim of the hat. When ready call out "Yummy! Birds for Breakfast!" At the buzzer, get your shotgun and shoot the 2 clays – you may make up a missed shot. Restage the open and empty shotgun back on the haybale. Pick up your rifle and triple tap the rifle targets from left to right. Restage the open and empty rifle on the haybale. Draw your first pistol and Nevada Sweep the pistol targets, starting on the left. Holster. Repeat with 2nd pistol.
