

Cattle Rustlers

You and your crew are herding some cattle to market. From the rocks above, shots ring out and some rustlers come riding down. One of them yells out to you to give up yer cattle and guns or face the consequences. You reply “I won’t give you this rifle, but I’ll give you what’s in it!”

2 pistols loaded with 5 rounds each, hammer on an empty chamber, and holstered.
Rifle loaded 9 rounds, hammer on an empty, and 1 round to be reloaded from your person, staged on the rest.
Shotgun, open and empty, staged on the rest.

At the buzzer, shooter calls out “I won’t give you this rifle, but I’ll give you what’s in it!” (line is said on the clock!). Shooter retrieves shotgun and engages the targets from left to right twice, no double taps. Shooter stages the shotgun on the rest, action open and empty. Shooter then engages pistol targets alternating until finished, starting on the left. Shooter then triple taps the rifle targets from left to right. After the 9th shot, shooter reloads and shoots the long range gong. Hit is a 5 second bonus.
