

Stage 1 Riding After the Slater Gang

The Slater Gang just shot up the town of La Choncha, New Mexico Territory. As the Town Marshall, you round up the posse and light out after them. Besides robbing the bank, they have stampeded the women and ravished the cattle. As you saddle up, the Maryland lawyer says "Maybe if you understood their feelings, you could reason with them."

2 pistols loaded with 5 rounds each, hammer resting on the empty chamber, holstered. 5 rounds to be reloaded from your person.
Shotgun, empty and open, placed on the hay bale. 4 rounds to be loaded from your person.

Start with one hand on the hay bale and the other holding a knife. After the buzzer, stab the hay bale 3 times (don't cut the cords!) while saying "you are as helpful as teats on a bull!" Leave the knife in the hay bale. Draw your first pistol and shoot the 5 targets in any order, all five must be shot. Holster, draw your second pistol and sweep right to left (gunfighters may shoot first 5 in any order – hitting each one once, then sweep R to L with second 5). Reload 5 in that 2nd pistol and put all 5 in the center pistol target. Holster. Pick up the shotgun and sweep R to L twice for 4 shots.
