

Sneakin' In

You're the sheriff of a small town and you've had word that Black Bill is hangin out at the Saloon. Since he is wanted fer murder in 4 counties, you decide to sneak in the back and arrest him. He has someone out on sentry in the back. You call out to him and shoot him with an arrow so as not to alert those inside.

2 pistols loaded with 5 rounds each, hammer resting on an empty chamber, holstered.
 Rifle staged with 10 rounds, hammer on the empty chamber, staged on the haybale.
 Shotgun, staged on the haybale action open and empty, 2 rounds to be loaded from your person.
 Arrows sticking up out of the haybale.

Shooter starts holding the bow with both hands. After the buzzer, call out "Hey you, by the door!" Pull an arrow out of the haybale and shoot at the haybale target. If your arrow goes into the painted area on the haybale, you get a 5 second bonus. Put down the bow and pick up your shotgun. Shoot the 2 poppers from right to left. Set the shotgun back on the haybale, action open and empty. Pick up the rifle and shoot the right target 4 times, the left target 4 times, and the center target twice. Set the rifle back on the haybale action open and empty. Draw your pistols and shoot the targets in the following order: right outside, left outside, right inside, left inside, center. Holster. Draw your 2nd pistol and repeat.
