

Stage 6 - "I Said, Throw Down Boy!"

While patrolling town one night you find the fugitive Billy Starr. You draw a gun and order him to remove his gunbelt and he refuses. Pulling back the hammer you tell him again.

2 pistols loaded with 5 rounds each, hammers on empty chambers, holstered.
Shotgun staged open and empty on the rest, at least 6 rounds to be loaded from your person.

Shoot starts standing at the rest with one pistol drawn and pointed at the left target. When ready, cock the hammer and call out "I said, throw down boy!" At the buzzer, shoot the three targets in a Nevada sweep starting on the left. Holster. Pick up your shotgun and knock down all the plates. These are must fall. Take as many shots as you need. Set the open and empty shotgun back on the rest. Draw your second revolver and Nevada sweep the targets starting from the right.
